Landscaping for a cause

The Carefree Gardener, A landscape makeover show hosted by former Ahwatukee Foothills resident Craig Allison, recently completed a job for two families in the Save the Family program that have been affected by domestic violence.

The families live in Tempe units that share a wall. A chain-link fence separated the backyard into two areas, which was taken down during the makeover.

All materials were donated by Valley businesses, including a $3,000 play set donated by Chandler-based Rainbow Play Systems, and the work was done by volunteers over the course of three days. The show will air in April 2008 on AZTV Channel 27.

The makeover will benefit Save the Family, a local nonprofit organization that helps homeless families get back on their feet.
